Navigating the complexities of the various workers' compensation schemes throughout Australia is especially difficult for smaller businesses where the employment of a Workers' Compensation expert to manage their workers compensation program is not feasible.

To ensure that our clients have access to the expertise required to effectively manage their Workers' Compensation Insurance, BJS Insurance Brokers; through their Specialist Workers' Compensation division Aegis Risk Management Services; now offer a Workers' Compensation Help Desk. This service is available for clients to call as often as required for assistance in navigating the complexities of Workers Compensation insurance across all states and territories in Australia.

The Aegis Risk Management Services Workers' Compensation Help Desk can assist you with:

- Inception and renewal of Workers Compensation policies in all states
- The management of your policy and premium
- Advice on return to work, claims and injury management
- Queries regarding your legislative obligations
- Advice regarding contractual obligations
